Crawford & Company Expands Global Markets Team

Nick Stretton joins as Vice President

London – Crawford & Company has strengthened its Global Markets team with the addition of Nick Stretton, who has joined as vice president.

Moving from insurer RSA Group where he was part of its Global Risk Solutions business team, Stretton will concentrate on business development for large global corporate companies within the London Market, while working closely with major brokers and corporate insurers.

Stretton has extensive claims experience, having spent time working with both CMGL and Teceris, while previously serving a considerable period at Zurich Global Corporate.

“I am excited that Nick has joined Crawford & Company. He has precisely the types of skills, contacts and all round knowledge that our clients demand,” said Mike Reeves, executive vice president, Global Markets. “With this appointment, Crawford’s Global Markets team can further demonstrate its commitment to having the very best expertise available to support clients around the world.”
