Crawford & Company® Named Finalist at Cyber Security Awards 2016

Competing in Insurance Product of the Year Category

LONDON (June 3, 2016) – Crawford & Company® is pleased to announce that it is a finalist at the Cyber Security Awards for its stand-out cyber incident response solution.

The Cyber Security Awards recognizes leading individuals, teams, companies and products in the cyber industry. This includes not-for-profit organizations and start-up companies, as well as global leaders. Organizations and people from all over the world are eligible to submit applications, as long as they have a presence within the United Kingdom.

Crawford®'s cyber solution was launched in 2015 and provides insurers, brokers and corporates with a single point of contact and an around-the-clock response platform to report cyber incidents. Cyber solution highlights include: a direct, single point of contact to help manage the incident response from end to end; a 24/7 incident response hotline available in more than 200 languages; and access to Crawford's pre-approved and contracted panel of proven experts in legal, cyber extortion, public relations, forensic investigation, credit monitoring and Crawford's own Financial and Forensic Accounting Services team.

Benedict Burke, chief client officer, International, said, "Our cyber solution has gone from strength to strength since its inception in early 2015. The last 12 months has seen us respond to some incredibly complex and confidential cyber incidents, but our response within one hour has ensured rapid resolution and brand protection for some household names."

The Cyber Security Awards' 10 judges represent a broad spectrum of different backgrounds and organizations within the cyber industry. Their scores and debate will determine the 2016 Cyber Security Awards winners. The winners will be announced during the awards dinner and presentation on 23 June, 2016, at the Chelsea Harbour Hotel in London.
